Profile

Creative Web Developer specialising in backend development with PHP (Laravel), MySQL, and API design. My journey began in 2020 during my academic studies, where I built projects and refined my skills through self-practice. Over the last 1.5 years, I have gained industrial experience delivering scalable web applications, secure backend solutions, and database-driven systems. Recognised with a Gold Medal in IT and professional awards for outstanding contributions. Currently pursuing an MRes in Artificial Intelligence in the UK, while occasionally exploring frontend tools like Laravel Blade and React to deliver dynamic, user-focused experiences.
